

THE EDEN COLLECTIVE FALL 2020: CONCEPTION

submission info & guidelines

Thank you so much for your desire to participate in this event. Please carefully read the event description and guidelines below before submitting your works for consideration.

Event Description

The Eden Collective: Conception is an online event curated by the Regenesis Guild that will take place on October 10, 3-5pm (PST). Visual art and photography will be shared as a digital gallery video, but performative works will be live over zoom (music, poetry, readings, etc.). Visual artists/photographers will also be given time to share about their works during the event.

Technical requirements for participating as an artist or performer:

1. Download zoom before event date
2. Stable internet connection
3. Be available an hour before the event starts
4. Suitable lighting
5. Prepare any necessary audio equipment (mics, plug-ins, etc.)
6. Interruption-free environment with minimal background noise

Submission Guidelines

Deadline for submissions: August 25

Notifications of acceptance: September 4

Each individual may submit up to 3 pieces total of original work for consideration. These original works may be in any combination of visual art, dance, photography, poetry, song, or other creative expression as indicated on the submission form (next page).
